DESCRIPTION

PUP PERFECT is a “dogumentary.” It explores the world of human Pups, how they evolved from the leather community, and what makes them tick. Through interviews with over a dozen human Pups, we get an intimate look at their lives and experiences. The Pups discuss the topics of history, headspace, hierarchy, packs, anxiety, neurodivergence, gear, consent, sex and family. We are left with a fuller understanding of this fetish and growing phenomena.

The featured individuals in the film are: Pup Acela/Legend, Handler Bearbone, Cortez/Pup Frankie, Pup Demos, The Master Eli Ra, Kitten Felinyx, Pup Fury, Pup Kilo, Pup Kyber, Pup Moose, Pup Mowgli, Pup Pluto, Pup R3Vnge, Pup Sirius, Pup Soli, Pup Treble and Pup Zanderwoodz.

SYNOPSIS

PUP PERFECT reveals the world of human Pups. Many of the Pups discovered their love of Pup Play while exploring the world of BDSM. For some, it is a natural extension of their kink; for others, it is a way to explore a different side of themselves that they had never explored before. It quickly became an important part of their lives, and one that they enjoyed immensely.

Pup Play is a way of embodying the spirit of a dog, both physically and mentally. They often wear a hood that looks like a dog’s head, wearing a tail plug, and sometimes incorporating BDSM articles like harnesses and collars. They bark, fetch, and even sleeping in a crate.

Often Pup Play is considered to be a sexual fetish. Surprisingly, the breakdown is roughly 50/50 on sexual vs. non-sexual. For most, it is a way of escaping the stresses of everyday life and embracing a simpler, more carefree existence. In the words of one Pup, “When I’m in Pup mode, I don’t have to worry about bills or work or anything like that. I can just be in the moment and enjoy myself.”

PUP PERFECT provides a fascinating glimpse into the world of human Pup Play, and the individuals who have embraced this unique lifestyle. It becomes clear that this is a deeply meaningful and fulfilling activity in their lives.
